Dear Ms. Mak,

Your letter dated 8 June to the Chairman of Art Museum Advisory Panel (AMAP) refers.

We helped to sent the letter to all members of AMAP and invite them to provide their views to Legco. However, some members have replied to us direct instead. I would like to forward their emails for your necessary action please.

Here is the first batch (emails from Mr. Pong Chung Yee and Ms. Nancy Lee)

Tate Modern does it in a similar way.

- 1) Free for everyone (including tourists) for general entrance

- 2) Additional fee for special exhibits. (Members, patrons & certain groups also get free access or discounted rates for special exhibits)

They get an 5M visitors a year (twice that of NY MOMA), although obviously not everyone will pay the additional fee to see the special exhibitions.

Dear Chairman and members,

It may be worthwhile to consider making the Museum entrance free for all Hong Kong ID card holders and students, while charging everyone entrance fee for special exhibitions.

Best regards,

Nancy
